

Art class challenge

Who: The Krewe of Mid City is offering an art challenge to students K-12.

What: Students are asked to create a shoe box sized float in Mid City's traditional colored foil style.

Judging: Each school will pick their best boy and girl float and bring to be judged by the officers of the Krewe of Mid City. They will look for creativeness, originality with in Mid City style and overall appearance.

Prizes: The four winning floats will be included in the design on one of the floats the day of the parade.

Art Drop off: Drop off can be arranged the third week of January. The two winning entries must include contact information for the school and artist.

To see current styles of Mid City floats go to kreweofmid-city.org & kreweofmidcity.com.

For additional information or if you are interested in having your school join the contest contact a Mid City officer at twobairds@earthlink.net. Put "Mid City Art Contest" as the subject line. Teachers only please.

All floats turned in will become the property of the Krewe of Mid City and will not be returned.

Mid City rolls 14th February 11:30 uptown route.

Good luck and have fun.
